Smt. Kashibai Navale College of Architecture, an institution under Sinhagad Technical Education Society, organized a workshop on New National Education Policy 2020 (NEP 2020) on 28 August 2023. Architect Pushkar Kanvinde was invited as an expert in this field for this workshop. The teaching staff of Savitribai Phule University Pune and other recognized universities participated in this workshop in online and offline mode. At the beginning of this workshop, Ar Kanvinde sir explained the new educational policy to all the teachers and its impact on Architectural Education, he revealed many subtle aspects of it.

As per the current policy students need to complete 12th standard and graduation of five years to get registered with Council of Architecture (COA). As per current policy students who have completed their 12th course in Chemistry, Physics, Mathematics or other technical subjects or who have completed their diploma courses can also participate in this admission process. It is a simple and easy program where students are registered in the list of Council of Architecture and get a registration number on after securing five years university degree examination from recognized university.

As per the new NEP 2020, a student must accumulate a minimum of 200 to 220 credits out of which about 120 to 132 credits must be acquired in undergraduate courses and the remaining 80 to 88 credits must be acquired in postgraduate courses. Students may take seven years after 10th and five years after 12th to complete this process, during which the student is expected to acquire two years of professional experience. First phase can be after finishing 3 years bachelors and the second phase of professional experience can be completed after a two-year postgraduate course. On completion of this journey the student qualifies for the Council of Architecture's registration examination and if he passes this examination, he can then become a recognized member of the Council of Architecture. During this entire journey, the graduate student can take exit at three different times and

During the event two new initiatives National Service Scheme (NSS) and Green Club were inaugurated by the guests. Architect Priyanka Ghate and Architect Juili Shirodkar coordinated the program, Architect Nitin Shiurkar, Architect Ravindra Rahigude handled the question-and-answer session in this program and Principal Dr. Sudhir Chavan gave a welcome introduction and special guidance. Dr. Shobha Kelkar gave vote of thanks at the end of the program.
