FEST

SKNCOA

As per SKNCOA's philosophy of "Conserving the limited natural resources for the future generations", students have explored Urban Studies through collage activities of regional planning, urban planning & urban design scales. Various levels of Urban Planning Challenges were explored through collage activities and they have created maps, audio clips, video clips of same. Socio Economic, cultural aspects, housing typologies, expression of public open-spaces are documented under Elective, further the same study is analyzed in Research In Architecture (RIA). Under RIA qualitative and quantitative analysis and its presentation techniques are integrated in the work.

Subject: Industry Academia exchange

Dear Mr Anand

It was great pleasure for Smt. Kashibai Navale College of Architecture (SKNCOA) faculty and students to welcome you for interactions with Fourth Year Design Studio on 25th Spet, 2023. The design studio is focused on urban housing issues in Pune and with the theme of "Housing for All". In this studio students have explored Shivajinagar, Model Colony, Wadarwadi area where in various socio, cultural & economic housing issues were shared by students. After students presentations your review comments in the form of inputs from international perspectives, recommendations of some of the international design case studies, construction technology feedbacks, design strategies, suggestions are noted by faculty and students. I am very sure it will further help to enhance the students works.

In continuation of academia and industry dialogue we would be happy to interact further with Naiknavare Developers (NDPL) Group. The industry and academia tie up can be initiated from small activities or any requirements that crop up in your day to day working. For example, conducting surveys or any work that is related to Architecture, Landscape Design, Urban Planning, Urban Design, Urban Housing. In this context our faculty will be happy to talk to Mr Neel. As per Pune University (SPPPU) syllabus and pattern Urban Housing studios is conducted in the seventh semester and eighth semester is allocated to Urban Design Projects. SKNCOA will always prefer to work on any real-life situations and issues that are of the concerns to citizens. We would happy to address them through design interventions where ever it is possible.

We would like to thank you for providing us with your valuable time and industry expertise.
